Levi Morgan Wins Second Leg of IBO National Triple Crown

Gold Tip and Bee Stinger Teams Continue to Dominate IBO Tournaments

AMERICAN FORK, Utah – June 26, 2017 – Gold Tip and Bee Stinger pro shooter Levi Morgan won the second leg of the IBO National Triple Crown in Bloomington, Indiana, capturing the podium of the Pro Release class. Gold Tip shooters again dominated the event.

Gold Tip and Bee Stinger pros took the top four places in the Men's Pro Division, with Morgan capturing his second-straight IBO series win with Series 22 Pro shafts. The finish gives him a solid lead in the IBO National Triple Crown points race.

In addition, Gold tip and Bee Stinger pro Larry Goza won his first tournament as a Senior Pro Class Shooter.

In the Women's Pro Class, first-year professional Erin McGladdery followed her win at the first leg of the IBO National Triple Crown with a solid third-place finish shooting her Gold Tip Series 22 Pro shafts. McGladdery was using a Bee Stinger Premier Plus stabilizer.

The IBO (International Bowhunting Organization) holds a National Triple Crown series consisting of three events, and then culminating in the IBO World Championship in August. An event round consists of 40 targets at unmarked distances, with 20 targets shot each day.
