Team Gold Tip Takes Home Triple Crowns and Gold Medals at IBO World Championship, US Open

Levi Morgan, Tim Gillingham End Record-Breaking Seasons with Impressive Wins

FLORA, Miss. – September 3, 2021 – Gold Tip, an industry leader in carbon arrows and bolts, is celebrating recent team wins, including taking home two golds at the IBO World Championship (August 5-8 in Seven Springs, Pennsylvania), and gold at the USA Archery Target Nationals and U.S. Open (August 18-21 in Richmond, Virginia). In addition, the Triple Crown awards for all three IBO Men's Pro classes were won by Gold Tip Shooters this year.

At the IBO World Championship, Gold Tip shooter Levi Morgan had an incredible come-from-behind win in the Men's Pro class, where he hit the final eight 11 rings in a row to take home the top prize. Likewise, the Pro Bowhunter podium was swept by Gold Tip and Bee Stinger shooters, with Jonathan Smith taking home top honors, John Ball in second place and Justin Ertel in third place. In the Senior Pro class, Gold Tip shooters Jeff Kirkland and Tim Gillingham took third and fourth, respectively.

The IBO's Triple Crown culminated with all three of the Men's Pro Classes being won by Gold Tip shooters. The IBO Triple Crown is awarded to the top points leader in every class over the three tournaments of the IBO National Triple Crown. Levi Morgan dominated the Men's Pro Class, Tim Gillingham reigned supreme in the Senior Pro Class and the Pro Hunter Class was topped by longtime Gold Tip staffer Matt Bressler.

At the USA Archery Target Nationals and U.S. Open, Team Gold Tip continued to shine, with Tim Gillingham taking gold in the Compound Master Men's event. With a stacked field of experienced shooters, Gillingham went head-to-head as a top four seed in the medal matches to earn his first-place finish. In the process, Gillingham took home two world records in the Master Class. This extends his tally to three new world records for the year, each accomplished with his Gold Tip Pierce shafts and Bee Stinger Premier Plus bars.
