Remington Engineer Wins Arkansas State Trap Shoot

LONOKE, Ark. – June 27, 2024 – Big Green is proud to celebrate Remington Research and Development Engineer Logan Henry, who recently took HOA as well as HAA titles—plus a host of additional event top finishes—at this year’s Arkansas State Trap Shooting Championship.

Held June 19-23rd at the Arkansas Game and Fish Foundation Shooting Sports Complex in Jacksonville, AR, the Natural State’s annual trap shooting championship brought together 367 top shooters from 14 states. 2024’s state championship marked the 98th year of the competition being held.

“It’s an honor and a privilege to stand on top the podium for Remington,” said Henry. “This win is further proof that we make the best competitive target shotshells in the industry. I’m proud to bring home a championship in Big Green’s home state.”

Henry’s titles at this year’s event included Event Championships in High Overall, High All Around and First Electric Singles, with runner up finishes in the Remington Handicap Championship, Singles Championship and Doubles Championship.
