Team Federal Shines at Superstition Mountain Mystery 3-Gun Match

ANOKA, Minnesota – March 25, 2022 – Team Federal had an excellent showing at the 26th Annual Superstition Mountain Mystery 3-Gun Match held at Rio Salado Sportsman's Club in Mesa, Arizona. This large event brings together the nation's top 3-Gun shooters and is the longest running 3-Gun match in the country.

"This is a prestigious match, highly regarded in the shooting-competition community for innovative stage design and being well-run," said Federal Shooting Sports Promotions Manager Jason Spradling. "Our Team Federal shooters do a fantastic job representing our brand wherever they go. It's great to see them perform well in such a high-profile, challenging match. A special congratulations go out to Alysia Burrows for her category win."

Match results highlights includes Alysia Burrows (Utah) who won Top Lady in the Stealth 2-gun Division, and new team member Varick Beise (Minnesota) who received Top Junior honors in the Tactical 3-Gun Division, while also finishing 4th out of 85 shooters in that division and 15th overall out of 373 shooters.

"I was excited to start the 2022 season with a bang at this event in beautiful Mesa Arizona. This match is known for attracting some of the best around, and it's always a privilege to shoot alongside them," said Burrows. "What really gave me my edge this weekend was the 150-grain, 9mm Federal Syntech rounds. This load has low recoil, but also has strong power to knock down all the large heavy steel. And in a match like this, the long range can make or break your game. Federal Premium 69-grain Gold Medal .223 Rem. Sierra Match King rounds are so incredibly consistent. It's so invigorating hearing those rounds ring on steel with every shot, even out at 300 yards and beyond. It is comforting knowing that when I do my part, Federal's products will never let me down."
