Each shooter played a large role in helping families and children in need.

"We're thrilled at the outcome of our first Shoot to Cure," said Remington's Director of Marketing Joel Hodgdon. "Thanks to all our attendees and sponsors, the sporting clays fundraiser gave us all a chance to give back to our community – and break a few clays along the way."

The success of the event was made possible by sponsors including Remington, Bushnell, Nighthawk Custom, Silencer Central, Midway USA Foundation, Staley Electric, Confetti's, United Health and Smart Choice Delivery, among others.
