National Champion Brandon Powell Joins Team Remington

Lonoke, Arkansas – November 9, 2023 – Team Remington's championship roster of top trap, skeet and sporting clays athletes is now even stronger with the addition of this year's NSCA National Champion, Brandon Powell.

Powell, a longtime professional shooter and instructor, brings a winning track record to Team Big Green. Boasting two US Open titles, six State Championship titles in his home state of Georgia, and a six-time NSCA selection for Team USA's Sporting roster, Powell recently took the HOA title in a capstone victory in 2023's National Sporting Clays Championship held at the National Shooting Complex in San Antonio, TX.

"Brandon's dominating performance in this year's championship tournament left no doubt – he belongs with Team Remington," said Team Manager Mike Hampton Sr. "We're glad to welcome Brandon to the team and can't wait to see more of his success."

"I've been shooting Remington shells for as long as I've held a shotgun," said Powell. "I'm looking forward to next season and even more wins with Team Remington."
