Remington Introduces Core-Lokt Handgun

LONOKE, AR. – January 19, 2024 – The Deadliest Mushroom in the Woods™ is now available for handgun hunters everywhere. Remington Ammunition is proud to announce the introduction of a dedicated version of Core-Lokt engineered specifically for big game handgun hunting, Core-Lokt Handgun.

Core-Lokt Handgun provides deer, hog and black bear hunters with trusted Core-Lokt terminal performance. This projectile's hollow point gives excellent expansion at handgun velocities along with high weight retention on target. Designed for accuracy from pistol-length barrels, the cartridges provide ideal terminal results fired from semi-automatic handguns or revolvers. Core-Lokt Handgun ammunition also features nickel-plated cases for ultimate dependability.

“For well over 75 years, Core-Lokt's been ready to get the job done on any big game hunt,” said Remington Ammunition's Director of Product Management Nick Sachse. “It's time handgun hunters had a Core-Lokt offering for their season too. Big Green is proud to give hunters even more options to hunt with the Deadliest Mushroom.”

Core-Lokt Handgun will initially be available in four cartridges:

R20220 / 357 Magnum Core-Lokt / $42.99 MSRP

R20225 / 41 Remington Magnum Core-Lokt / $40.99 MSRP

R20228 / 44 Remington Magnum Core-Lokt / $52.99 MSRP

R20231 / 10mm Auto Core-Lokt / $52.99 MSRP
