Remington Ammunition's New 22 Golden Hunter Rimfire Load Now Shipping

LONOKE, Ark. – February 16, 2024 – Remington Ammunition has announced the availability of its recently launched 22 Golden Hunter rimfire ammunition. Setting a new standard for rimfire hunting, the 22 Golden Hunter offers hunters a new and improved level of precision and performance.

“Big Green is excited to announce the next evolution of the 22 Golden Bullet is officially available,” said Remington Ammunition’s Rimfire Global Product Line Director Jason Slinkard. “Our latest 22 caliber rounds provide small game hunters with enhanced effectiveness, marking a significant advancement in our product line.”

The 22 Golden Hunter offers unparalleled performance in the field. Combining the trusted heritage of the 22 Golden Bullet with Remington's enhanced rimfire technology, this ammunition is ideal for hunting squirrels, rabbits, varmints, coyotes, and more. This precision hollow point round is designed to reliably expand upon impact, ensuring a quick force transfer on target with optimal penetration.
