Remington Releases New Podcast Episodes, Featuring Special Guests and Ammunition History

LONOKE, Ark. – October 24, 2024 – Remington Ammunition recently released several new episodes of the Remington Podcast. Hosted by Remington Senior Marketing Coordinator Audrey Mayes, these episodes cover a wide variety of topics and feature guest appearances from Remington ammunition experts and editors from popular shooting and hunting magazines, including Game & Fish, Gun Dog and Wildfowl.

Mayes expressed her excitement about the new episodes, stating, "we are thrilled to bring our listeners incredible new episodes as the fall season gets into full swing. Each episode offers a unique perspective on hunting and showcases the expertise of Big Green and our esteemed guests from popular magazine titles. Whether you are a seasoned hunter or just starting out, these episodes are packed with valuable information and entertaining discussions."

These Remington Podcast episodes feature topics such as upland bird and waterfowl hunting, big game and a wide array of iconic cartridge talk:

Rifle Roundtable: Discussing an Iconic Hunting Cartridge

With hunting seasons opened around the United States, Mayes sits down to discuss her favorite Remington offerings amongst hunters. Mayes is joined by Director of Centerfire Products Kris Carson, Head of Research and Development Jon Langenfeld and Research and Development Engineer Logan Henry. Together, the team takes a deep dive into the history of the .308, its use in hunting applications and what centerfire cartridges provide ideal performance for different hunting scenarios.

Adam Heggenstaller and Kali Parmley: Game, Fish, and Gun Dogs

Adam Heggenstaller, editor of Game & Fish, and Kali Parmley, editor of Gun Dog Magazine, join Mayes to discuss Big Green's extensive line of rifle cartridges and shotgun hunting loads. In this episode, the group gives a spotlight to classic product families such as Core-Lokt and Premier Long Range and examines newer additions to the scene such as Express XLR—the ultimate upland load.

Skip Knowles from Wildfowl: Ducks, Geese, and Ammunition

Wildfowl Magazine Editor-in-Chief Skip Knowles joins Mayes on the range from the western slope of Colorado. As a renowned waterfowl whisperer, Knowles brings listeners in on a few secrets as he tells the stories of some of his greatest hunts, as well as how the Hypersonic Steel and high-quality Nitro-Steel Duplex loads made it all possible.

Why the 9mm Reigns Supreme: Exploring the Caliber's Dominance

Mayes is joined by former law enforcement officer and Remington's Director of Rimfire, Primers and Alliant Powder Jason Slinkard, as well as Research and Development Engineer and handgun aficionado Leland Mason to discuss what is arguably the most well-known handgun caliber in history. The group runs down the history, usages and bullet types of the 9mm cartridge, including a roundtable of the best 9mm Luger options from Remington Ammunition.

Additional new episodes include:

- The All Things Upland Episode
- Rifle Roundtable: Unpacking the 7mm
- Keeping the 16 Gauge Alive
- Copper to Cast Iron: Premier CuT and Core Lokt Copper

About Remington

From muskets to modern day, generations of hunters and shooters have trusted Remington ammunition and accessories. Loaded in Lonoke, Arkansas by American workers, our wide array of pioneering sporting and hunting ammunition promises to get the job done every time the trigger is pulled. At Remington, we're here for everyone who loads a round of ammo into a handgun, rifle, or shotgun.

Founded in 1816, Remington and America have fought and won wars, put food on millions of tables and brought countless generations together at the range and in the field. We are proud of each and every round that rolls off our factory line. An ammunition brand of the Kinetic Group, Remington is bringing a renewed focus to ammunition, innovation, and quality – all while staying true to Remington's legendary heritage and stature as an American icon.
