Team Remington's Powell Continues Sporting Clay Dominance

LONOKE, Ark. – September 11, 2024 – Remington Ammunition congratulates sponsored shooter Brandon Powell as he adds another title to a summer of sporting clay success. Powell won the South Central Regional High Overall in the Main Event along with claiming the Super Sporting and 5-Stand events to add to an impressive weekend. The regional championship took place September 3-8, 2024, at Defender Outdoors Clay Sports Ranch in Fort Worth, TX.

“Brandon continues to add to his impressive summer of success. This is his second regional Main Event title in a month adding the South Central Regional title to the Northeast Regional Championship he won in Maryland,” said Remington’s VP of Marketing Jason Nash. Powell defeated 671 competitors in the Main Event, shot a perfect 100 straight to win the Super Sporting and bested nearly 500 competitors in the 5-Stand event.

With the Sporting Clay Nationals right around the corner, other Team Remington shooters also turned in solid performances leading to the premier event of the year. Turner Parcell was the Runner-Up in the Main Event and was the Junior Division Champion. Todd Hitch was M1 in the Main Event and finished Runner-Up in the Junior Division.

Team Remington competes and wins with Remington Premier shotshells. Top quality, consistency and accuracy come standard when trap, skeet or sporting competitors shoot the iconic Premier STS and Premier Nitro families of ammunition.
