Federal Ammunition Sponsored Shooter Vincent Hancock Takes Silver at the ISSF World Cup in Qatar

ANOKA, Minnesota – December 11, 2025 – Federal Ammunition congratulates Vincent Hancock on his excellent performance in Men's Skeet at the ISSF World Cup Final in Doha, Qatar, held December 4-9.

Hancock, ranked number 2nd in the world, shot his way into the Men's Skeet finals in the first position by shooting a perfect 125 during qualification. In the Final, Hancock finished 2nd in the tournament, earning a World Cup Final silver medal. He was bested by fellow American Elliot Christian, a representative of the U.S. Army, by just one target.

"Federal Ammunition is extremely proud of the performance turned in by Hancock all year long," said Jason Nash, Federal's V.P. of Marketing. "Vincent is a 4-time Olympic gold medalist, and he consistently sets the gold standard when it comes to competing on the world stage in Men's Skeet. With the end of the calendar year fast approaching, we are already looking forward to more high-level performances from him and all our shooters on Team Federal."

Federal is the number one choice for shotgun shells. The company manufactures products in America for all competitive and recreational disciplines. See the full lineup, including Master Class and All-American target loads, at www.federalpremium.com.

New in 2026, Federal will also offer All-American target loads in shot size No. 9 that will be popular with Skeet shooters. The latest and greatest All-American product line consists of twelve competition Trap loads that use Federal's own Podium™ wad that's customized for straight-wall hulls.
