“These new products address the need for modernized defensive ammunition for popular .45 Colt revolvers and rifles, as well as requests for a modern defense bullet in .32 H&R,” said Chris Laack, Federal Handgun Ammunition Product Manager. “Both of the different and unique bullet designs for these two new loads achieve critical penetration depths through barriers encountered in self-defense situations.”

Federal Premium Hydra-Shok has proven itself for self-defense since 1989. The Hydra-Shok Deep Jacketed Hollow Point (JSP) builds upon that time-tested platform with design improvements that better meet modern performance standards. The bullet features a more robust center post and a core design that penetrates to optimal depths through the most common barriers encountered in self-defense situations.

“Our Hydra-Shok Deep bullet for the 45 Colt is designed and optimized to work within the limitations of the 45 Colt, from short revolvers to full-length carbine rifles,” continued Laack. “Our Hydra-Shok Deep bullet for 32 H&R supports the launch of several new guns in that cartridge as well as offering a lower recoil option in 327 Federal Magnum chambered revolvers.”

The new Personal Defense loads feature the iconic center post bullet design, which has been improved for better, more consistent expansion. They also include specially formulated propellant, an extremely reliable, high-performance sealed primer, and Federal Premium nickel-plated cases. Both are sold in 20-count boxes.
