Federal Ammunition is Proud to Sponsor NWTF's 2025 Convention and Sport Show

ANOKA, Minnesota – February 6, 2025 – Federal Ammunition is the title sponsor of the Hunting Heritage Breakfast on Friday, February 14, at the National Wild Turkey Federation's (NWTF) Annual Convention and Sport Show. The 2025 NWTF Convention will be held February 12-16, 2025 in Nashville, Tennessee. Federal Ammunition also continues as a Gobbler Sponsor of the overall event.

Federal Ammunition and the National Wild Turkey Federation have been working together for decades. The company has participated in every NWTF convention and has been the Conservation Breakfast host for 42 years. Federal Ammunition is one of the five longest-running sponsors of the NWTF.

"This flagship event is something any hunter will not want to miss," said Federal's Community Relations Director, Jon Zinnel. "It's great to see everyone come together to celebrate conservation successes and look to the future of wild turkey conservation and all things hunting. It's the perfect platform for highlighting our product offerings. This year, 28-gauge turkey loads will be the hot talking topic at our booth."

Federal's turkey shotshells offer performance in a wide variety of options. Their current product families include Federal Premium Grand Slam, 3rd Degree with TSS, HEAVYWEIGHT TSS, and Custom Shop TSS turkey loads.

New for 2025, Federal Ammunition offers its HEAVYWEIGHT TSS turkey loads in two 28-gauge offerings, 2 3/4-inch (1 1/4-ounce) and 3-inch (1 1/2-ounce), both in shot size No. 9. A durable roll crimp and FLITECONTROL wad helps keep patterns tight. Federal's Custom Shop also collaborated with legendary choke tube designer Rob Roberts Custom Gunworks on two all-new, heavy-payload, 28-gauge loads in 2 3/4-inch (1 1/2-ounce), and 3-inch (1 3/4-ounce).

Attendees of the NWTF's 2025 Convention and Sport Show are encouraged to stop by Federal's booth No. 1113 to talk with Federal's enthusiastic staff about the perfect ammunition for any upcoming turkey hunting adventure.
