Team Remington Continues Sporting Clays Success with another Powell Victory at Caribbean Classic

LONOKE, Ark. – February 12, 2025 – Remington Ammunition is dominating the early sporting clay circuit with another Main Event title at the Caribbean Classic. Remington's Brandon Powell won the High Over All in the Main Event over new teammate Braxton Oliver and 417 other shooters competing in the main event at Vero Beach Clay Shooting Sports facility in Vero Beach, FL. The event drew more than 630 total competitors and concluded on Monday, February 10, 2025.

In the Main Event, Brandon Powell missed just one target on each course to finish with a score of 198, four targets better than Braxton Oliver. Powell had an impressive year in 2024 with multiple NSCA regional titles and a second consecutive NSCA National Championship. "Brandon is picking up where he left off last October," says Jason Nash, Remington's VP of Marketing. "His continued dominance in the sport is truly remarkable," continued Nash.

The newest Remington team member Braxton Oliver won two event titles during the week. Oliver won the White Flyer Prelim over 332 shooters as well as claiming the 5-Stand event. At the final Monday Challenge event, Powell again claimed High Over All and Oliver was the event Runner Up with 183 shooters competing.

Team Remington competes and wins with Remington Premier shotshells. Top quality, consistency and accuracy come standard when trap, skeet or sporting competitors shoot the iconic Premier STS and Premier Nitro families of ammunition.
