Team Remington's Brandon Powell Wins a Second World Championship in 2025

LONOKE, Ark. – August 20, 2025 – Remington Ammunition's Brandon Powell adds another accolade to his long list of 2025 accomplishments. After successfully defending his World Sporting Clays Championship in England in July, Powell headed north to Canada to claim the 8th Annual ICTSF World Sporting Clays Championship at Wapiti Shooters Club in Grande Prairie, Alberta. The event drew competitors from around the globe and took place August 12-17, 2025.

"It has been an amazing summer of winning for Team Remington's Brandon Powell," said Jason Nash, Remington's VP of Marketing. "He has dominated the NSCA circuit and now has two world titles, that is truly impressive, and Team Remington is fortunate to have him representing and shooting our products at all these prestigious events."

Besides the ICTSF world title, Powell also won the High Over All in the Prelim, 5-Stand, and Super Sporting events.

Team Remington competes and wins with Remington Premier shotshells. Top quality, consistency, and accuracy come standard when trap, skeet, or sporting competitors shoot the iconic Premier STS and Premier Nitro families of ammunition.

About Remington

From muskets to modern day, generations of hunters and shooters have trusted Remington ammunition and accessories. Loaded in Lonoke, Arkansas by American workers, our wide array of pioneering sporting and hunting ammunition promises to get the job done every time the trigger is pulled. At Remington, we're here for everyone who loads a round of ammo into a handgun, rifle, or shotgun.

Founded in 1816, Remington and America have fought and won wars, put food on millions of tables and brought countless generations together at the range and in the field. We are proud of each and every round that rolls off our factory line. An ammunition brand of The Kinetic Group, owned by CSG, a globally diversified industrial group based in Prague (Czech Republic), Remington is bringing a renewed focus to ammunition, innovation, and quality – all while staying true to Remington's legendary heritage and stature as an American icon.
