Team Remington's Parcell Wins Third Straight South Carolina State Championship

LONOKE, Ark. – September 23, 2025 – It is a 3-peat for Team Remington's Turner Parcell at the South Carolina State Sporting Clay Championships. Parcell won the Main Event High Over All by a single target over a field of 292 shooters competing for the state championship. Team Remington's Michael Luongo finished third and Braxton Oliver finished fourth in the Main Event held at the Hermitage Sporting Grounds in Camden, SC. In total, 392 shooters participated in the competition that ran from September 17-21, 2025.

Besides claiming the Main Event title and trophy, Parcell won two additional events. Parcell, a student at the University of South Carolina, was the High Over All in the Prelim event sponsored by Remington Ammunition and the 5-Stand event. The South Carolina native finished second in the Super Sporting event that was won by teammate Braxton Oliver. "I always look forward to performing well at my state championships," says Parcell. "It does have extra significance to me to win a state title," says the South Carolina native.

Other notable finishes from the South Carolina State Championships, Team Remington's Braxton Oliver was the Runner-Up in the FITASC event and Michael Luongo was the winner of the .410 Bore Event.

Team Remington competes and wins with Remington Premier shotshells. Top quality, consistency, and accuracy come standard when trap, skeet, or sporting competitors shoot the iconic Premier STS and Premier Nitro families of ammunition.

About Remington

From muskets to modern day, generations of hunters and shooters have trusted Remington ammunition and accessories. Loaded in Lonoke, Arkansas by American workers, our wide array of pioneering sporting and hunting ammunition promises to get the job done every time the trigger is pulled. At Remington, we're here for everyone who loads a round of ammo into a handgun, rifle, or shotgun.

Founded in 1816, Remington and America have fought and won wars, put food on millions of tables and brought countless generations together at the range and in the field. We are proud of each and every round that rolls off our factory line. An ammunition brand of The Kinetic Group, owned by CSG, a globally diversified industrial group based in Prague (Czech Republic), Remington is bringing a renewed focus to ammunition, innovation, and quality – all while staying true to Remington's legendary heritage and stature as an American icon.
