Federal's America 250th Commemorative Target Loads Now Shipping

ANOKA, Minnesota – March 20, 2026 – Federal Ammunition has officially begun shipping its new America 250th commemorative ammunition line. Created to honor the country's 250th birthday, these limited-edition offerings span several of Federal's most popular target product families, including American Eagle, Top Gun, and Champion. The loads deliver the same reliable accuracy and performance shooters expect, now packaged in collectible designs celebrating America's 250th anniversary.

"As our country approaches this historic milestone on July 4, we wanted to offer shooters something they can enjoy at the range today while also holding onto as a collectible for years to come," said Jesse Whiteside, Vice President of Product Management. "These America 250th loads deliver trusted Federal performance across our most popular target lines, paired with packaging that honors the American spirit and the next 250 years."

The America 250th line features target-friendly loads across rifle, handgun, rimfire, and shotshell categories, offering a wide range of options for everyday shooting, training, and recreation. Each product is built on proven Federal recipes for consistent performance and dependable function, with special edition packaging that commemorates the nation's 250th anniversary.
