Federal New All-American 20-Gauge Target Loads Now Shipping

ANOKA, Minnesota – April 6, 2026 – Federal Ammunition expands its all-new All-American shotshell product line. These competition-level trap and skeet loads feature a customized Podium wad that extracts peak performance from utilizing Federal’s straight-wall hull, reliable primers, high-antimony lead shot, and select propellant. Two new-for-2026, 20-gauge loads are now shipping to dealers nationwide.

“All-American features a one-piece Podium wad and high-antimony lead shot that balances hardness and density,” said Federal’s Shotshell Product Manager, Sam Oftedah. “The loads are constructed with a straight-wall hull, an inserted plastic base wad, and a striated tube for optimum performance. Shooters who prefer to shoot 20-gauge are sure to love the high-performance of these quality loads.”

All-American offers a much better option than standard target loads for competitors in trap and skeet. They feature high-quality components in an ultra-reliable two-piece straight wall hull design. All-American is offered in the most popular payloads and velocities for modern trap and skeet competitions and is packaged in 25-count boxes.
