In the Doubles Championship, Westin Anderson won the Junior Champion title with a score of 99 out of 100 targets, and Ziggy Tkaczenko earned the Wheelchair Champion title with 91 targets.

In preliminary events, Eric Munson broke a perfect 100 of 100 targets in Preliminary Doubles.

Federal Ammunition products, including the new All-American, are available at dealers nationwide and online. All-American features a one-piece Podium wad and high-antimony lead shot that balances hardness and density. The loads are constructed with a straight-wall hull, an inserted plastic base wad, and a striated tube for optimum performance. All-American offers a much better option than standard target loads for competitors in trap and skeet. Learn more at: All-American.
