Remington's Patriotic Themed Bulk Buckets Now Shipping

LONOKE, Ark. – July 16, 2026 – Remington announces the availability of its new patriotic-themed bulk buckets. The 'Don't Tread on Me' and 'Come and Take It' bulk buckets, spanning rifle, handgun, and rimfire, are time-tested loads that Remington customers trust at the range and in the field. Each product touts popular packaging graphics and is now shipping to dealers nationwide.

"Earlier this year, we launched our 'We the People' bulk buckets in honor of America's 250th anniversary historic milestone," said Remington's Marketing Director, Christian Hogg. "These additional patriotic bulk-bucket options symbolize American heritage, grit, and pride. The buckets are built for shooters who take responsibility seriously, train often and are ready to defend."

Remington's "Don't Tread on Me" series pays tribute to one of the most powerful symbols of early American resolve: the coiled rattlesnake on the Gadsden Flag. The series features four limited loads in 22 LR, 223 Remington, 7.62x39mm, and 9mm Luger. They offer quality and the best value for high-volume shooting.

Remington's "Come and Take It" series draws inspiration from one of the nation's most iconic expressions of defiance, which was used in historic U.S. battles. This four-product series features 22 LR, 223 Remington, and 9mm Luger (FMJ and JHP), designed for both training and defense.
